Policy Work Groups

Project Task Forces

- A Project Task Force has a staff sponsor, board lead, and 4 members.
- Project Task Forces are temporary work groups assigned to a specific strategic initiative.
- They typically will last no more than 3-months and provide an excellent opportunity for members to engage alongside MARF in a meaningful way.

- A Policy Work Group is organized as needed by the Policy Director
- Policy Director, board lead, and members that have an interest in devoting time to develop a recommendation.
- Policy work groups are temporary work groups assigned to a specific industry issue.
